Dear Admiral Turner:

We were delighted to receive your good letter and to learn that you will be speaking to the student-body of Stanford University on Monday evening, February 6th. We are both planning to be present to hear you and to have a short visit with you and your wife after the meeting. We have been following your career with great interest and are confident that you will do a superb job as Director of the CIA. God bless you in your new responsibilities. Fern joins with me in best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Edward H. Jones
